

Adeline Palmerston

Student, 16

About Me

Adeline is a high school student in Paris with a passion for arts and social issues. She comes from a diverse cultural background and actively participates in extracurricular activities.

Key Traits

- Advocates for inclusivity and acceptance
- Motivated to create positive change
- Values empathy and understanding
- Artistic and creative

FEAR

- Being targeted for harassment due to cultural background or interests
- Social consequences of speaking out against harassment
- Potential retaliation for reporting incidents

HABITS

- Active on social media (Instagram, Snapchat)
- Participates in community service and peer support clubs
- Engages in discussions about social issues

PAIN POINTS

- Stress from school social dynamics and harassment
- Lack of safe spaces to discuss experiences
- Limited confidential reporting resources for harassment

FRUSTRATIONS

- Inadequate response from school authorities to harassment
- Peers remaining silent or participating in bullying
- Pressure to conform to peer expectations

DRIVERS

- Desire to create a more inclusive school community
- Passion for artistic expression
- Commitment to supporting peers facing harassment